EL RETIRO, LOS ALTOS

Jan. 27. Contractors' Retreat under the Co-Captainship of Mr. Charles Harney and Robert McCarthy. There were 57 who made the Spiritual Exercises under the direction of Fr. Kavanagh.

Fr. Rice attended the funeral of Mr. Thomas Gilligan, uncle of Fr. Andrew. From the very beginning of El Retiro, Mr. Gilligan had been a most devoted worker in the field for the furtherance of the Lay Retreat Movement. Always giving and never counting the cost, self-sacrificing and humble, his services will be missed by those at the Retreat House.

Jan. 31. St. Ignatius High Seniors, 45 in number, made the mid-week retreat with Fr. Cody as their Retreat Master. Along with these boys was one U.S.F. student, a former student at Catholic University, who remarked that the spirit of silence and recollection of these boys surpassed by far that which he was witness to in making retreats with religious in Washington.

Feb. 3. The officers of the Northern Jurisdiction of the Knights of Columbus, some 75 in number, made their annual retreat under the direction of Sir Knight, Fr. Eugene Toner. As with his many lectures to the Knights in the Bay area, Father's talks were well received. The retreat was Captained by Tom Duffy, assisted by the Hon. Edward Molkenbuhr, Supreme Director of the Knights for California. For organizing the class and carrying on the apostolate of the Laymen's Retreat Movement in their jurisdiction, Judge Molkenbuhr, an alumnus of U.S.F., and Mr. Duffy, were signalled out for the El Retiro Citation of Honor. In the class were men from Eureka, Merced, Mariposa and Los Angeles, showing that distance is no barrier to making a retreat, and that men can get away for the three full days of retreat if they really try. Also present on this retreat were ten students from the University of Santa Clara and five from U.S.F., representing the Sodalities of their respective schools.

Feb. 6. In preparation for their annual retreat, Fr. Kavanagh addressed the Holy Name Society of St. Emydius Church.

Feb. 7. El Retiro was host to the Newman Club of the University of California for their annual retreat. Fr. Kavanagh gave this retreat and left the men with much food for thought, as was evidenced from the remarks made at the final meeting. All throughout the retreat there was manifest a wonderful spirit of co-operation among the Newmanites. Just as we look forward to receiving these men each year, on their part a cordial invitation was extended to the Fathers, particularly Fr. Kavanagh, to share in their campus activities, with the idea of directing their efforts A.M.D.G.

Feb. 10. The Bellarmine Dads' Retreat served as a very pleasant instrument whereby Fr. Cosgrove was introduced to the pioneer Dads' Club of the Province. Along with the new Rector came Fr. Sugrue, out-going Superior of Bellarmine and former moderator of the Club. In recognition of Father's generosity in organizing the Bellarmine Dads' retreat, the Board of Directors of El Retiro asked that the beautiful Citation of Honor be conferred on Fr. Sugrue as a mark of their deep appreciation and gratitude. Fr. Maher unfolded the Exercises for the Dads in his own inimitable manner and in a way that left a lasting impression. Mr. Donohue, President of the Dads' Club, speaking for all present, pledged the continued support of the Club to Fr. Cosgrave in carrying out the building program started by Fr. Sugrue.

Feb. 12. Fr. Oliver, O.F.M., Superior of Mayslake Retreat House in Chicago.

paid us a visit in the company of Frs. McCummiskey and Watson. Fr. Oliver is about to start his own building program at Mayslake and stopped at El Retiro to look over the new Marini Hall and to check the general set-up on the hill.

Feb. 14. The sixth successive retreat, without mid-week time out for Brother Joe and his staff, found us receiving the second section of St. Ignatius Seniors, 51 in number. Again the Exercises were given by Fr. Cody. The success of Father's efforts might best be judged from the remarks made by one of the Seniors at the concluding meeting of the retreat: "I wish that I had known Father sooner—for four years he has been just a name to me." The fine spirit of honor manifested by the boys at the conclusion of the retreat cannot be passed over without comment.

Feb. 15. Fr. John Walker, priest of the Diocese of Kansas City and Chaplain at Treasure Island, made his annual retreat in St. Robert's Hall.

Feb. 17. Accompanying the men of his parish, Fr. Geary, Moderator of the Holy Name Society of St. Emydius Church, brought 68 to El Retiro for the fifth annual retreat of this class. Both Fr. Motherway, pastor, and Fr. Geary, his assistant, are enthusiastic promoters of the Retreat Movement, preaching it in season and out of season to the men of their parish. El Retiro owes much to both Fathers for the generous assistance they have given these past five years. Their organization has been taken as a model by other pastors and with good results. John Finnegan, brother of the Rector who is so kind to all our houses at Christmas time, was the Captain of this class, the largest in St. Emydius' history. The results of Fr. Kavanagh's Communion Breakfast talk to these men was much in evidence.

Feb. 18. Both Fr. Rice and Fr. Kavanagh attended the funeral of Fr. Walsh's mother from St. Ignatius Church.

Feb. 26. This date marks the first anniversary of the purchase of the 22 acres of the Prosser Estate next door. During that time more than 3000 men have visited the property, and over 8000 have been apprised of its purchase through the medium of the Retreat Bulletin. Without a single exception there has not been a word of criticism of the move. One of our men thought so much of the step that he immediately wrote out his check for $5000.00 to help acquire this essential piece of property.

Feb. 28. During the month of February Frs. Spearman and McCann have been supplying at the daily and Sunday Masses at St. Nicholaus Church during the absence of Fr. Stanley Reilly.

LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL

Fr. Richard Scannell pronounced his Final Vows on the Feast of the Purification. The scholastics' choir, aided by Mr. Joseph Caldwell from the University (his ankle still in a cast) rendered selections during the Vow Mass.

The scholastics' choir also sang at the Vow Mass for the Brothers of St. John of God when two of their novices pronounced their vows.

Additional members were received into the Sodality on the Feast of the Purification.

Classes were suspended momentarily when Fr. Rector, assisted by acolytes, went around to the classrooms to bless the new crucifixes that were donated by the Gold Cross Mothers.

The improvements on the inside of the school building continue with the installation of new blackboards. The new fluorescent lights and light green venetian blinds in the classrooms are a welcome transformation.

The Dads' Club held one of its most successful meetings on Feb. 10. To carry out the "baseball" theme of the program, bags of peanuts were distributed to everyone there, the band played "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," and the entire group joining in a community sing. Notable celebrities, such as "Pants" Rowland, Jim Thorpe and others were present at the meeting.

The Mothers' Club held its annual Birthday Party on Feb. 17 in the New Gym. Each table's decoration represented a month of the year. One of the tables featured a miniature of the Novitiate, with miniature novices and juniors placed here and there.

Our Varsity won the Catholic League Basketball Championship and lost to Carmel in the Southwest Catholic Tournament.

Fr. Bradstreet addressed the Jesuit Mothers on the work of the Mission

Band.

Fr. Ivancovich preached the sermons at the 40-hours Devotion held at Blessed Sacrament Church. Messrs. Porter and Babbish led the Litanies.

Fr. Howard held a consultation with the Sodality moderators.

The Freshman Elocution Contest was won by Donald Eitner of 1-C, who gave a very beautiful selection entitled "The Creation." The contest was under the direction of Fr. James Devlin. The judges were selected by Fr. Devlin. Donald Eitner was coached by Fr. Devlin!

Tom Till of 3-C, winner of the Hearst History Contest, appeared in Television on a recent program. The editors of our school paper will also be interviewed on Television in a program designed to get the high school boy's opinions on world affairs.

BELLARMINE

Fr. Thomas Cosgrave was installed as Rector on Feb. 2.

The Sophomore Debating Team defeated Sacred Heart High of S. F. The Junior Debating Team defeated St. Ignatius.

Bellarmine Varsity Basketball Team won the Western Division Championship of the C.A.L. in a playoff with Serra. The C.A.L. playoffs will be with St. Mary's Prep of Berkeley.

The First Round of the Intercity League was won by Bellarmine. In a meeting of the coaches and referees Bellarmine was publicly commended for its excellent sportsmanship.

In preparation for the centennial of the prep school a history of the main events is being published every month in the school paper.

The Senior Class is presenting to the school a large statue of Our Lady of Fatima. It may be placed in the center of the lawn, facing the chapel.

Fr. Carr was ill in the hospital with the flu and a touch of pneumonia. Most of the Faculty had a touch of influenza during February.

The community picnic was held at Villa Joseph on Feb. 21.

Fr. Carr gave the Forty Hours Devotion sermons at St. Joseph's.

Fr. Corvi is to preach at St. Joseph's during the Novena of Grace.

Fr. Flynn is to give the Lenten Lectures on Wednesdays.

Fr. Menager helped out at Manresa over a week-end.

Loyola University students played a major part in the L. A. area's portion of the second European Relief Drive organized by NFCCS. The Southern California region, including students from Loyola, the three girls' colleges, and the two schools of nursing, grossed $14,500. Of this about $9,000 was brought in by Loyola students. "Plugs" for the drive were generously carried by six local Radio stations.

Visitors: Fr. Paul Bolkovac, S.J., from Germany, who is investigating the influence of American Catholic thought on American cultural and public life; Frs. Macelwane and Blum of the Geophysics Department of St. Louis University en route to a meeting in San Francisco; Fr. Mallon, the St. Louis Province Prefect of Studies; Fr. Howard, Province Sodality Prefect.

MANRESA, AZUSA

The unusual weather has not cooled the enthusiasm of the Manresa Retreatants. The average attendance is steadily rising, and 1949 promises an exceptionally good record.

Under the leadership of Mr. C. Castruccio, the alumni of the University of Santa Clara are concentrating on the month of February for their annual retreat. The University lists some 450 alumni in this area.

During the week of Feb. 10-14, some sixteen University of Southern California Law students made a retreat under Fr. Edward Whelan.

On Monday, Feb. 7 ,Fr. Edward Whelan, the new Superior of Manresa, was presented to and received a warm welcome from the Executive Committee of the Retreat Association. All are deeply interested in the early construction of the "casitas" and promise a wholehearted co-operation.

At this meeting deserved tributes of appreciation were paid Fr. Joseph Stack and Fr. John McCummiskey.

Fr. James Kearney left Manresa for Santa Clara after several months of activity both at the Retreat House and in Los Angeles.

The Retreat Association mourns the recent death of two charter members and devoted retreatants, the one Mr. Al Rossetti, brother of the late Fr. Felix Rossetti, and Mr. Jesse Smith. R.I.P.

CHRIST THE KING—SAN DIEGO

The negroes of the district freely express their pride in their imposing church—a gem of architecture and far beyond what the neighborhood calls for. Christ the King Church is in the slums of San Diego. Protestants attend our services in large numbers. They frequently ask, "How do you all get Catholic?" Unfortunately conversions among them are scarce on account of marriage entanglements. Our only hope of success is among the children, but the Baptist minister watches that very closely.

We get many through the medium of the Boy and Girl Scouts. They get acquainted wtih us, prejudice is broken down, they begin coming to Mass and then ask for baptism.

Our recent census shows 1262 souls—742 Mexican, 218 Negro, 58 Italian, 39 Filipinos, and 205 Irish.

The Negro population of San Diego is 13,136—218 Catholics would mean one in sixty.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER PARISH, PHOENIX

We had some distinguished visitors. Bishop O'Dowd of San Francisco, who was a classmate of Father Hanley at Star of the Sea, stayed at our new rectory for a few days. He was accompanied by Fr. O'Connor of the Catholic Charities and Fr. O'Shea of the CYO in San Francisco.

Father Provincial and Father Socius arrived for the visitation the evening of Feb. 9 and left the morning of Feb. 11.

Fr. Monaghan was in the hospital for removal of a kidney stone in January. He has been improving since.

Mr. Lawrence O'Toole, first year theologian from Alma, came to stay with the hope that the Phoenix climate may help to cure his arthritis. The famous Phoenix sunshine has returned after about a month and a half of clouds and rain.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Carroll House scholastics attended the Catholic U. play, "Grandstand Play," an original by the author of "Brother Orchid." A good production.

Several Californians here enjoyed the lecture of Evelyn Waugh at Georgetown.

Washington has been singularly blessed with a mild winter this year.
